

FIRST-CLASS TROTTERS.

Little Hanks Cuts Out the Work for Steve Maxwell and Lew Scott.

There were two fine exhibitions of trotting in Prospect Park yesterday, the last day of the spring meeting. The first was by 22-class horses for a $400 divided purse. T. J. Colby, W. Green's son & g., Uncle Dave, W. H. Crawford's, Hambltonian, and Jessie, and W. McMahon's b. s. Boughay started for the money. Hambltonian Boughay sold in the pools at 2 to 1 over the field. Uncle Dave outfoxed the squad in the first heat from wire to wire, coming in half a length in front of Boughay in the second heat. Uncle Dave won $100 from Uncle Dave in 2:28. Uncle Dave took the third heat handily by two lengths in front of Boughay; time, 2:28. As in the first heat, Uncle Dave led from the wire in the fourth heat, winning the heat and trot easily; time, 2:28. Uncle Dave was awarded second money, and Regent third.

The second heat was run by 20-year-old horses. J. W. Pettit's famous ch. s. Hannis, John Murphy's fast g. s. Steve Maxwell, and W. C. Moore's fast colt, a brother to the one for the $200 division, purrs. Hannis sold in the pools at 4 to 1 over the other two.

Little Hanks captured the first heat after a start from the wire, leading half a mile during which Maxwell trotted very fast, tipping Hanks half a length at the finish. Time, 2:28.

In the second heat, Maxwell gave Hanks another brush, but was too unsteady to outfox the favorite. Hanks took this heat by a length from the wire, and now, as he came in nearly neck and neck, time, 2:28.

Hanks started from the start to the finish in the third heat, winning the heat and trot by two lengths, 2:28.

The tough little trotter never broke during the three heats.

As the lovers of fast trotters present were Messrs. David and Alvy Bounier, Hamton Bushy, and other New Yorkers.

Judge Voorhees matched his c. g. H. G. H. with the trotters, and Uncle Dave, W. H. Crawford, to harness, for $100, on the Prospect Park Fair Grounds, June 21.

Dr. Wild's Burned Church.

Fire Marauder. - Lord of Brooklyn has condemned the fire which destroyed the Union Congregational Church in Elm place yesterday was caused by one of the gas jets in the organ loft, which had been pushed against the organ pipes, or by the end of a clear. The trustees of the church have fixed the loss at $40,000. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Wild, has expressed the opinion that the walls which are still standing can be used to erect a new building, which will be larger. The trustees, however, say the burned walls are so weak that they would not stand. Dr. Wild received threatening anonymous letters, and was compelled to leave his home on Saturday morning. Dr. Wild said yesterday that the fire was unaccountable, and that it was the result of a short circuit a month ago, when delivering sermons on "The Beast and Antichrist." He received two anonymous letters offering $100 each for information leading to the person who directed against the Roman Catholic Church of his beloved Brooklyn the curse connection between the anonymous letters and the fire.

Crawford's Kick.

William Crawford, aged 11, who resides with his parents at the foot of Hicks street, Brooklyn, yesterday quartered with his schoolmate, John Bradel, aged 11, of No. 14th street, Brooklyn, and No. 27, in East Brooklyn. Crawford had a headache, and his shoe at the toe, and kicked Bradel in the thigh. The boy, however, did not resent the kick, but, on detecting a painful wound, the lad was attended by Ambulance Surgeon Conroy. Crawford was taken up.
